RESTAURANTS

Whether it's at the buffet of the restaurant, "Os Arcos", at the iconic "Taverna Grill", or on the terrace of the pool bar, the special touch of Madeiran cuisine is always a welcome addition to your meal.

Take advantage of the gastronomic variety offered by our Dine-Around package: enjoy three à la carte dinners at any of the Pestana group's hotel restaurants in Funchal.

BAR

You can also choose the British-style “The Pub”, to relax and watch a game or spend long hours chatting at the pool bar, with an incredible view over the Atlantic Ocean.

If you prefer to enjoy tea and music in the foyer of the 5th floor, there are bars and atmospheres to suit all tastes at the Pestana Carlton.

OUT

The Madeira Archipelago consists of Madeira Island, Porto Santo Island, and two uninhabited islands called Desertas and Selvagens.

The nature in this archipelago and its unique topography, combined with the tourist and cultural offerings, give this island the designation of a true Portuguese oasis in the Atlantic, where routine fades away. Whether you are looking for an adventure tourism experience or a few days of rest and contemplation, a visit to Madeira Island will always be excellent therapy.

The city of Funchal is considered a cosmopolitan and luxurious locality, remaining accessible to all ages and tastes. As you stroll through the Old Town of the city, you will have the opportunity to appreciate the picturesque atmosphere and the beauty of the historical center of the downtown area. It is in this area that the entertainment comes to life. With narrow streets, traditional squares, cozy terraces, and some of the best restaurants. A must-visit is the Mercado dos Lavradores, initially designed for the exclusive sale of flowers, but which today has become the ideal place to find the most authentic and sought-after regional products.

OUT

THE BEAUTY OF THE PEARL OF THE ATLANTIC

One of the unmissable experiences on the Madeira Island are the Levadas – interior trails that cross the entire territory. Some are more challenging for adventurers, while others are more accessible to anyone. These paths offer the best way to explore the Laurisilva Forest, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, providing a perfect union with nature.

Thanks to the mild climate, it is possible to practice nautical, land, or aerial activities at any time of the year. In addition, you can opt for excursions around the island: to the northeast, discover Santana and its picturesque little houses, to the northwest, you can dive into the Natural Pools of Porto Moniz. If you prefer pebble beaches, west of Funchal, you can enjoy the enchanting beach of Fajã dos Padres, whose crystal-clear waters invite diving.

In Madeira, there is a spirit of celebration and festivity throughout the year. Among the most popular festivities are the fireworks display on New Year's Eve, Carnival, the Flower Festival in the spring, and the Atlantic Festival in the summer.

ENJOY

Experiencing Madeira's cuisine is to have the privilege of tasting the specialties of an island with a great variety and quality of gastronomic products.

Seafood, fish, and cod are staples in the Madeiran menu. It's very normal to start the meal with grilled limpets, seasoned with garlic and lemon juice, whetting the appetite for the generous Tuna Steak, which is the main dish. The Black Scabbard fish fillets served with banana, smoked swordfish, octopus, and snails are just some of the many irresistible delicacies that fill the table, both in fusion restaurants and high cuisine as well as in the typical village taverns.

REGIONAL DISHES

1. Meat in Wine and Garlic Sauce
2. Madeiran Skewered Beef
3. Bolo do Caco (Traditional Bread)
4. Limpets
5. Chicharros (Fried Mackerel)
6. Black Scabbard Fish Fillet with Banana
7. Picadinho (Diced Beef)

DESSERTS

Honey Cake
Queijadas (Cheese Pastries)
Honey Biscuits
Sonhos (Fried Dough Pastries)
