IN

Surrounded by lawns that form lush tropical gardens, the Pestana Grand stands out for its prime location facing the vast sea and next to a stunning promenade.

The centerpiece of the hotel is its imposing saltwater pool, offering a panoramic view that reaches the majestic Cabo Girão.

This is the perfect retreat for those looking to read, rest, or simply escape routine, benefiting from the variety of atmospheres offered by the hotel's various rooms.

Alternatively, you can surrender to the care of the magnificent SPA, which includes an indoor pool with a panoramic view, an irresistible invitation to pamper the body and spirit.

With a total of 177 rooms and 11 suites, the Pestana Grand stands out for the constant brightness of its spaces. Each room is equipped with large windows, designed to maximize the entry of natural light, creating a warm and serene atmosphere. The carefully designed balconies are the ideal place to enjoy tranquil moments, especially while appreciating the spectacular sunrise, providing a unique and memorable experience to guests.

OUTDOOR

The outdoor pools, meticulously designed for both adults and children, are true works of art that blend harmoniously with the landscape, created to mirror and enhance the magnificent view over the ocean.

These pools promise to provide unforgettable moments to all guests, offering a perfect setting for relaxation and fun under the mesmerizing beauty of the sea.

RESTAURANT & BAR

The quality and culinary diversity offered by Pestana Grand, located on Madeira Island, grant it the status of one of the most attractive hotel complexes in the region.

At the Cabo Girão restaurant, you can delight in the very typical Madeiran Espetada.

On an international level, the hotel takes pride in including Au Tagine, an elegant Moroccan restaurant, and Trattoria de la Fontana, which treats its visitors to the finest Italian cuisine.

For a relaxing moment by the pool, the Pool Bar is the perfect choice. And for those who prefer a relaxing evening, the Coast Bar offers lively nights with live music.

OUT

The Madeira Archipelago consists of Madeira Island, Porto Santo Island, and two uninhabited islands called Desertas and Selvagens.

The nature in this archipelago and its unique topography, combined with the tourist and cultural offerings, give this island the designation of a true Portuguese oasis in the Atlantic, where routine fades away. Whether you are looking for an adventure tourism experience or a few days of rest and contemplation, a visit to Madeira Island will always be excellent therapy.

The city of Funchal is considered a cosmopolitan and luxurious locality, remaining accessible to all ages and tastes. As you stroll through the Old Town of the city, you will have the opportunity to appreciate the picturesque atmosphere and the beauty of the historical center of the downtown area. It is in this area that the entertainment comes to life. With narrow streets, traditional squares, cozy terraces, and some of the best restaurants. A must-visit is the Mercado dos Lavradores, initially designed for the exclusive sale of flowers, but which today has become the ideal place to find the most authentic and sought-after regional products.

OUT

EXPERIENCE

Madeira is a paradise and has an incomparable natural landscape, with very exclusive fauna and flora and a temperate climate all year round.

One of the unmissable experiences on the Madeira Island are the Levadas – interior trails that cross the entire territory. Some are more challenging for adventurers, while others are more accessible to anyone. These paths offer the best way to explore the Laurisilva Forest, recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, providing a perfect union with nature.

In Madeira, there is a spirit of celebration and festivity throughout the year. Among the most popular festivities are the fireworks display on New Year's Eve, Carnival, the Flower Festival in the spring, and the Atlantic Festival in the summer.

ENJOY

Experiencing Madeira's cuisine is to have the privilege of tasting the specialties of an island with a great variety and quality of gastronomic products.

Seafood, fish, and cod are staples in the Madeiran menu. It's very normal to start the meal with grilled limpets, seasoned with garlic and lemon juice, whetting the appetite for the generous Tuna Steak, which is the main dish. The Black Scabbard fish fillets served with banana, the dried horse mackerel, smoked swordfish, octopus, and snails are just some of the many irresistible delicacies that fill the table, both in fusion restaurants and high cuisine as well as in the typical village taverns.

REGIONAL DISHES

1. Meat in Wine and Garlic Sauce
2. Madeiran Skewered Beef
3. Bolo do Caco (Traditional Bread)
4. Limpets
5. Chicharros (Fried Mackerel)
6. Black Scabbard Fish Fillet with Banana
7. Picadinho (Diced Beef)

DESSERTS

Honey Cake
Queijadas (Cheese Pastries)
Honey Biscuits
