Fall in love with the breathtaking view of the Sagres Fortress and Cape St. Vincent.

IN

It is a sea-flavored scenery of great historical importance that we find at Pousada de Sagres.

Since its inauguration in 1960, on the occasion of the 500th anniversary since the death of Henry the Navigator, Pousada de Sagres has become a favorite for all lovers of the Algarve Southwest coast. Designed by architect José Segurado, Pousada de Sagres has 51 rooms, which are just perfect for an invigorating break.

A breathtaking view of the coast makes the magnificent outdoor pool the perfect setting to relax and unwind in the Algarve's intense weather. Pousada de Sagres features a fully equipped meeting room and a wedding service with a spellbinding view of the sea.

Discovering Pousada de Sagres is the starting point to explore this region's cultural authenticity.

Enjoy a magnificent view in the comfort and freshness of

OUT

Famous for Henry the Navigator's 15th century Nautical School, Sagres (Vila do Bispo municipality) is the perfect refuge for city slickers.

The famous soft sand and turquoise sea beaches convey an unparalleled feeling of serenity. To this peaceful setting we must add the sea's extraordinary conditions, which are just perfect for sports such as surfing and windsurfing.

Having the Costa Vicentina Natural Park at your disposal, hiking and cycling are a must for those who wish to venture into a stunning scenery.

The combination of the sea and the nearby mountains produces an unusual natural heritage and a mystical atmosphere you will not forget.

Let yourself be seduced by one of the most beautiful sunsets in the world.
The sun reflecting on the sea and covering the cliffs with an incomparable golden hue.

TO DO

Begin your tour of Sagres on one of the local beaches and continue on foot through the streets of the quiet village – or even by boat, across the blue sea, next to the coastal cliffs. If you are a sports lover, the sea of Sagres offers excellent conditions for water sports such as surfing, bodyboarding, paddling, windsurfing, diving, and sailing.

TO SEE

There is plenty to see and enjoy in the village. Start with the Sagres Fortress, an iconic place for Portuguese culture, from where the caravels set sail during the Portuguese Discoveries. Afterwards, a trip to the Sacred Promontory of Sagres is an absolutely must. In Cape St. Vincent, the Roman 'Sacrum Promontorium' is the southwesternmost location in the entire European continent. Not to be missed.

TO EAT

The Algarve cuisine is famous for the variety of fish and seafood that abound along the coast, and which then become local specialties not to be missed. Made with almonds, figs and carob, sweets are equally important.

Grown throughout the Algarve region, these products are then combined with eggs, resulting in small delicacies no one can resist: Dom Rodrigos, Morgados, Marzipan Sweets and Queijos de Figos (literally 'Fig Cheeses') are mouthwatering.
