Located on the peaceful Porto Santo Beach, the Pestana Porto Santo All Inclusive & Spa Beach Resort stands as one of the gems of Madeira's hotel industry.

This oasis, surrounded by a lush tropical garden of 30,000 m², offers direct access to the beach and features two large swimming pools, one of which is saltwater, a main attraction of the resort.

The choice between relaxing in the sun by the pool or enjoying the warm sea and therapeutic sands of Porto Santo is a luxury at your disposal.

The hotel operates on an "all-inclusive" basis, ensuring a relaxing and fun-filled stay for all ages and tastes.

Furthermore, the Pestana Porto Santo is recognized for its environmental responsibility, having been certified by "The Green Key" for its excellent environmental management. It also has a concession on Ribeiro Salgado Beach, distinguished with the Blue Flag, an award that attests to the quality of the water, environmental education and information, safety, and support infrastructure.

The hotel takes pride in offering a wide selection of 328 accommodations, including elegant two-bedroom suites, practical rooms, and luxurious villas with a private pool. These accommodations are harmoniously distributed across 15 cozy-sized buildings, strategically located around the refreshing outdoor pools and lush gardens, creating a peaceful and picturesque environment for an unforgettable stay.

OUT

Porto Santo, a small paradise in the Madeira archipelago, Portugal, is an ideal destination for those seeking tranquility and natural beauty.

Famous for its stunning golden sand beach, stretching for almost 9 km, the island is a perfect retreat for sunbathing and water activities.

The clear waters of the Atlantic Ocean invite swimming, snorkeling, and diving, while the sand is known for its therapeutic properties.

Beyond the beach, Porto Santo offers hiking trails with spectacular panoramic views, a rich cultural heritage including the Christopher Columbus Museum, and delicious local gastronomic options, with an emphasis on fish and seafood.

The island is also a fantastic destination for golf enthusiasts and water sports lovers. With its combination of serene beauty, outdoor activities, and culture, Porto Santo is the perfect place for a relaxing and unforgettable getaway.
